Alexandria Gazette.

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 15, 1905.

Waylaid By a Negro.
James W. Robey, charged with attempted criminal assault, was held to await the action of the grand jury in Washington under $3,000 bond in the Police Court yesterday before Judge Scott. The prisoner pleaded guilty and was committed to jail in default of bond.
It is alleged that Robey accosted Florence Parsons, a seventeen-year old girl living on the Bowen road, last Monday night, in a lonely spot on the Ridge road, near Benning. The young woman was on her way home with some groceries and held her pocketbook in her hands. Robey first took those articles and then threw them away. During the struggle which followed, Miss Parsons fought bravely with her assailant. In attempting to stifle her screams, Robey placed his left hand over her mouth, and his little finger was almost bitten off.
Two negro workmen, hearing the girl's cries, hurried to her aid. Robey released his victim and fled, but was later arrested. The prisoner is said to be a tramp, and is known to have attempted a similar crime about two years ago. The young woman was unhurt.

Brother and Sister Assassinated.
What is believed to be the sequel of a fued of long standing, resulted in Valdosta, Ga., Tuesday night, in the assassination of the 17-year-old son and the 16-year-old daughter of W. L. Carter, formerly a Baptist minister. The young people, attracted by the barking of a dog in the yard surrounding their home, went out to investigate, followed by a younger child. They were fired upon by someone from behind a smokehouse.
The young lady fell dead, the young man crawled back to the house, where he died, and the younger child was wounded. Mr. Carter fired upon someone prowling in his yard early yesterday. He believes the assassins are negroes, but says some other may have been the instigator of the crime.

Torture of a Preacher.
The story of the torture of Rev. O. D.
Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He said: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up at night. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseases of the throat and lungs. Sold at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.
Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

depend on the quantity of food you eat, but on its perfect digestion and proper assimilation.
When you take Kodol's Digestive Care, your system gets all the nourishment out of all the food you eat. It digests what you eat regardless of the condition of the stomach and conveys the nutrient properties to the blood and tissues. The taste, soapy by druggists in

TAKE NOTICE.—The sale is to take place at Potomac City, NOT AT MANASSAS.
Sale was originally advertised for Manassas, but has been postponed to June 19th in order that it may take place AT POTOMAC CITY, where property is situated.

BY VIRTUE OF A DECREE OF THE Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia, rendered on the 7th day of November, 1904, in the chancery cause of Solomon Myers and Isadore Myers, executors of Lewis Myers, deceased, vs. Max Lausburgh and others, the undersigned special commissioners of sale, will on MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1905, at 1:30 p. m., at POTOMAC CITY (QUAN-TICO), VA., sell at public auction so much of the right, title, interest and estate of the defendant, Max Lausburgh, in and to that valuable and extensive domain situated in the county of Prince William, State of Virginia, described as containing 4,264 acres, more or less, and bounded on the north by Quantico creek, on the south by Chappawamie creek and on the west by the telephone road, together with all rights and appurtenances thereto belonging or in any way appertaining, as may be necessary to satisfy the amount of the said debt in favor of the plaintiffs against the said Max Lausburgh; to-wit: the sum of $2,741.75, with interest at 6 per cent. thereon, from March 9, 1900, and on $208.11, the residue thereof from October 4, 1901, until paid, and the costs of this suit and of sale.

Terms of Sale.—One-third of the purchase money in cash on the day of sale and the residue in two equal installments at six and twelve months from the day of sale, the deferred installments to bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the day of sale until paid, and the title to be retained until the full payment of the purchase money.
The purchaser or purchasers may at their option pay all in cash. All conveyancing to be at the cost of the purchaser or purchasers.

Although the holdings of defendant, Max Lausburgh, are subject to the contingent dower right of his wife in the equity of redemption, and subject also to the rights of W. A. Wimsatt under a certain agreement bearing date February 9, 1904 and March 4, 1904, respectively, and the deed made in pursuance thereof, recorded among the land records of Prince William county in 1902, page 323, and consequently, in order it is necessary to sell the entire holdings of Mr. Lausburgh, the sale would have to be subject thereto; yet the commissioners will be in a position to give good titles to individual lots, parcels etc., without encroaching upon the bulk of the domain, because, in the first place, resort would after such sales have to be in respect of said contingent dower interest to the remaining bulk of the domain thus relieving the individual lots, parcels etc., and in the second place, the rights of W. A. Wimsatt are expressly subject to a release by him of his liens on the said lots, parcels etc., without encroaching upon the bulk of the domain, and without interference with his timber cutting, are sold.

In conducting the sale, therefore, the commissioners will first proceed to offer individual lots, parcels etc., as follows:

Church and schoolhouse together with half acre of ground;

Two 2-story 7-room dwellings, very desirable;

Four 1-story dwellings, containing, respectively, 2, 3 and 4 rooms;

One store-building, one story;

An exceptional 1-story dwelling in addition to the two already mentioned;

One combined stable and barn;

Numerous valuable building lots;

"Turner Tract" of 32 acres;

"T. Turner Tract" of 40.25 acres;

"Dowell Tract" of 40 acres;

"Maddox Tract" of 48 acres;

"Downer Tract" of 57.75 acres;

"McNair Tract" of 70.12 acres, etc., etc.

This is a great opportunity to buy homes and build homes in the eastern section of the county, with excellent railroad facilities, and all the advantages of the water facilities afforded by the Potomac River, which are the more available at Potomac City on account of the depth of the channel at that point.

JAMES R. CATON,
J. B. T. THORNTON,
Commissioners of Sale.

J. John S. Beach, Clerk of the Corporation Court of Alexandria, do hereby certify that James R. Caton has executed bond with approved surety as required by the above decree.
